

LB Flett, Young Children's Division Instructor

LB (Laura Beth) is a performer, choreographer, and dance educator from Louisiana currently residing in Austin, Texas. She has been training in all types of dance, primarily ballet and contemporary, for 17 years. She recently graduated from The University of Texas at Austin with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance and a Business Foundations certificate. As a member of UT's Dance Repertory Theatre, she has performed in works by renowned choreographers such as Ananya Chatterjea, Charles O. Anderson, and Adrienne Hurd. More recently, she has choreographed pieces for UT's Dance Repertory Theatre, and is now choreographing and performing with interdisciplinary performance group TC Superstar. LB is dedicated to teaching and inspiring young dancers to be healthy, creative, and conscientious individuals.