

Priscilla Pope, Butler Fellow and Young Children's Division Instructor

Priscilla Pope grew up performing with the Santa Clarita Ballet Company and studied under the Royal Academy of Dance curriculum. She holds each of her examinations with Distinction, and has traveled the country training at various professional ballet companies; such as Boston Ballet, Sarasota Cuban Ballet, Los Angeles Ballet Academy, and The Colburn School. Priscilla has trained with world-renowned instructors such as Jenifer Ringer, James Fayette, Seth Belliston, Romy Zippora, Kelly-Anne Sloan, Corrine Glover, Carol Guidry, and Fabrice Camels. She has received numerous scholarships; including the Eurotard 2019 sponsorship, and EJ Busser scholarships for dance. Priscilla has also placed and participated at numerous dance competitions including California Dance Classics, YAGP, and the RAD Dance Challenge. Priscilla has also grown-up training dancers, cross-training athletes, and teaching children technical ballet. She studied under Tawny Gentry, learning the joys of teaching, and found her passion as a dance instructor. She is currently a Butler Fellow with Ballet Austin, and teaches in the Young Children's Division.
