

Alexis “Lexi” Eicher, Ballet Austin II Company Member & Young Children’s Division Instructor

Alexis (Lexi) Eicher is a current dancer in her second season with Ballet Austin II. She grew up in Fort Wayne, IN where she began both her dance training and her teaching career, undertaking many children’s classes at multiple studios during high school. In 2021, she graduated from Indiana University’s Jacobs School of Music with a Bachelor of Science in Ballet & Psychology. During college, she performed works by renowned choreographers such as George Balanchine, Antony Tudor, Martha Graham, Jerome Robbins, and Christopher Wheeldon. She also took three years of ballet pedagogy courses and taught the Pre-College Program’s Introductory to Ballet classes. She moved to Austin in the fall of 2021 and is beyond excited to share her love of ballet and passion for teaching with the young children of Austin.
