

Samantha Andrade, Teaching Assistant

Cultivating a passion for both early childhood education and the world of dance, Samantha is an early childhood educator with five years of dedicated experience. Aspiring to expand her horizons, Samantha is excited to take on the role of Teaching Assistant for the Young Children's Division.

Although Samantha's personal ballet experience is still developing, her unwavering commitment to continuous learning and her enthusiasm for the art form drive her to create a supportive and engaging learning environment for young dancers.
